

A Publication of the San Diego Swing Dance Club which was established on May 10, 1970

A group of people, mostly older adults, are participating in a social activity, possibly a dance or exercise class, in a large room with wooden floors and blue walls. In the foreground, a man in a red polo shirt and blue jeans is walking towards the right. In the background, several other people are standing in a line or circle, some holding hands. A woman in a red shirt and white pants is in the center, and a man in a light-colored shirt and pants is on the right. The room has a large "EXIT" sign on the wall and a "SPEAKING" sign on the floor.

A Few Words From Our President

I'M BACK! Thank you for voting for me and my new Board. I am so pleased to be part of another year as President of this wonderful dance club. I have a few new members joining our board this year, and they are already showing me that we will be working hard to give you a great year. They are planning to bring you some fun Sundays with super music that fills the floor. I know that you will be having the best time each Sunday when dancing and making new friends.

Lloyd Lickert had a great workshop on June 26. We had a large class and they all came and learned some new moves. Keep us dancing Lloyd.

Be sure to join us on Sunday, July 3rd, to celebrate Independence Day. Wear lots of Red, White and Blue and try to win prizes.

Our attendance has been up, and we even got 6 new members last month. Keep up the good work by talking to your friends and family and inviting them to join you. Don't forget—when you see a “star” on someone's name tag it means they are here for the first time. Welcome them and ask them to dance. That is why we are called “The friendliest club around”.

Warmest regards,

Ann Taylor

3 PM every Sunday—learn the five basic steps of west coast swing dance.

July 2016—Our Instructor will be Anita Dancoff

Anita Dancoff believes that West Coast Swing Dance is the best, because it combines great music, fun partner connections, and healthy exercise. Although Anita began studying and performing jazz, ballet, and modern dance as a teenager, her first experience with partner dance was at the San Diego Swing Dance Club over ten years ago. She is grateful to all the wonderful club members who have taught, danced with her, and inspired her to learn more about the dance. Because of her profession as an elementary school teacher, Anita knows that good teachers never stop learning, and she regularly attends dance classes and workshops. Anita is honored to be asked to teach the West Coast Swing basics class and looks forward to a fun month.

Thank you Lloyd Lickert for another wonderful workshop held on June 26th. With the assistance of his daughter Reina, Lloyd showed how to dance the Half Whip Back and also the Half Whip Forward. Now it will be interesting to watch as you all add these moves to your dance routines.
