A Few Words From Our President

Thanks everyone for coming each Sunday to have another fun day dancing with all your friends and staying cool in this crazy weather. Boy – our music has been great, our floor is full, and we cannot ask for a better way to spend our afternoon. We got 7 new members this month– yeh!! Lloyd Lickert and his daughter Renia taught some great beginner classes , and Robert & Vicki Palladino’s workshop gave us some new intermediate patterns to work on.

We had a good turnout on TEE SHIRT day. We had funny, crazy , pretty and different shirts. Prizes went to Risa Goldberg, most original, Effie Belden, prettiest and Frank Taylor, funniest! Thanks to all of you who signed the birthday cards for our oldest member, JACK SIGLER who turned 93 on Aug.27th and lives in Georgia. He received over 50 cards. He misses us and our cards made him “Very Happy”.

September 18th Wear your favorite Hawaiian clothes and come to our Luau and watch a group of young and very talented Hula dancers put on a show for you all to enjoy.
Keep dancing – See you at the club
Ann Taylor

Lloyd Lickert

was our instructor during the month of August. Helping him out was his daughter Reina

Thanks to Robert and Vicki Palladino for teaching an advanced workshop on August 28th.

Please be sure to express your appreciation for the music we dance to every week. Jim Gibson and Vicki Palladino put in a lot of effort to provide us with the many songs needed for our dancing pleasure.

Condolences to one of our long time club members, Una Morgan, on the passing of her husband James.
