December West Coast Swing Dance Classes December 4th, 11th and 18th With Anita Dancoff at 3 pm

Anita Dancoff believes that West Coast Swing Dance is the best, because it combines great music, fun partner connections, and healthy exercise. Although Anita began studying and performing jazz, ballet, and modern dance as a teenager, her first experience with partner dance was at the San Diego Swing Dance Club over eleven years ago. She is grateful to all the wonderful club members who have taught, danced with her, and inspired her to learn more about the dance. Because of her profession as an elementary school teacher, Anita knows that good teachers never stop learning, and she regularly attends dance classes and workshops. Anita is honored to be asked to teach the West Coast Swing basics class and looks forward to a fun month.

A Few Words From Our President

Wow, the holidays are here. I hope you all had a great Thanksgiving. Now it is time to get back to dancing and get rid of the extra pounds we all put on. If you have not gotten your tickets to our Christmas Dinner Dance yet—don't miss out. It is one of our biggest events of the year. Bob Pomeroy is still selling tickets. See him at the club.

Also, do not forget about our Toys for Tots gifts. We will be collecting them until December 18th. We want to support our Marines and give them a good Christmas.

We have had some good crowds every Sunday. Thanks to all of you for attending and also bringing in many of your friends to enjoy their afternoon with us. We are the friendliest club out there—keep up the good work.

Also, since Christmas falls on a Sunday, we will be DARK. The Lodge will be CLOSED. But after you spend a great night New Year's Eve, and feel like dancing some more - come join us on Sunday, January 1st. We talked the Elk's Lodge into opening up just for us, and we will have our dance as usual. There will be no beginner's class that day so join us at 3 PM to just dance and enjoy the first day of 2017.

Happy New Year to all of you. Have a safe and wonderful New Year. See you at the Club.

Ann Taylor
