A Few Words From Our President

Summer is almost over and we still have many things to enjoy each and every Sunday. We had a lot of fun at our Tee Shirt day and the tee shirts were great.

We are looking forward to cooler weather and have you all coming every Sunday and bringing lots of new friends with you. Our Club has been around for 47 years and every year we love meeting new people.

Mary Manzella will be our beginner dance instructor for the first 3 Sundays and then she will be teaching you many new steps at her intermediate class on the last Sunday.

We also are having our Luau on Sunday the 17th. Come wear your Hawaiian clothes and enjoy the afternoon, plus we will be having a young group of girls from the Island Dancers of San Diego entertaining us.

Since we never stop having fun – don't forget about Halloween in October. Think up some great ideas to surprise us or even scare us.

Keep dancing – See you at the club.

Ann Taylor
