A Few words from our President

Hi Everyone—I am back and happy to be part of our wonderful club again, I missed you all. So glad to see our classes filled and everyone learning more steps. Bob and Suzie had a good waltz class and then as always they also taught some fun moves during their swing dance classes

Easter Sunday was enjoyed by dancing and eating lots of Easter goodies and then we all joined together to say goodbye to Vicki & Robert Palladino, who have decided to leave California and move to Utah. They both were our dance instructors for many years and Vicki was also our DJ for a long time. We all wish them lots of luck and hope they get to enjoy a new life in Utah.

Don't forget our biggest event of the year— Our Spring Fling Anniversary Dinner Dance— Saturday May 25th. I am selling tickets each Sunday or you can call me and I will save them for you. Tickets for members is still only $25. Don't miss out.

Our year is almost up and we are still in need of a couple more Board members as always. Right now, we need a Treasurer and a Vice President. We can train you, so it is not a big job. On May 19th we will bring up and introduce the new Board to everyone and we will ask you to show a raise of hand to vote for all of this Board. And if you love music— we could get you ready to be one of our DJs. Being part of our club makes you feel really proud of what you are doing each Sunday, by helping and dancing.

Thanks everyone for coming every week as it is keeping our club going strong and keep bringing your friends as I love meeting new people.

See you at the Club.

Ann Taylor
