A Few Words From Our President

August brought sadness for me as my partner, Diane Harvey, was called home. I am pleased that her suffering has come to an end. Needless to say, I will greatly miss her.

Your president visited one dance site for informational purposes; called the Renegade.

The Renegade is located five miles east of El Cajon. It had all the makings of a country western bar; horses, hats, boots and large belt buckles. Line dancing was taught for two hours. A live band started at 9:00 PM. Loud music was played and most of the dancers did the country 2-step. I really missed the West Coast Swing and I did get back in one piece.

We enjoyed a successful workshop by David Walkup and Trish Connery Walkup on the 25th of August. They are true champions. Their class was well received and again we were pleased to have them.

Your President,

Craig P. Helm Sr.

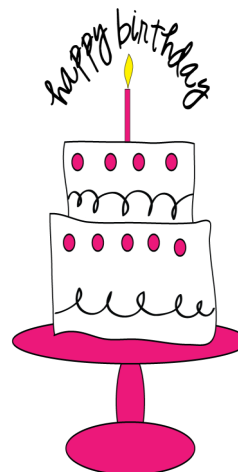

P.S. : I now picture Diane Harvey as an Angel.

JT Swing Teams

In 2017, multi time world champions Jordan Frisbee and Tatiana Mollmann launched JT Swing Teams. This is the first of its kind in the West Coast Swing World. They create new choreography pieces twice a year, allowing dancers all over the world to improve their skills in one of the disciplines that helped J&T achieve so much success - through performing routines. There are two levels of dance performance teams, a Junior Varsity and a Varsity. There are teams in cities all over the world doing the exact same choreography to the same music. This enables dancers on teams from different cities and countries to meet up at a dance convention and perform the routines at the convention.

Last season, Lauren Baldovi organized and coached a junior varsity team which performed for our San Diego Swing Dance Club.

This season Lauren has formed both a junior varsity and a varsity team. They will perform at our club September 15th. Be sure to attend to see San Diego's teams perform these outstanding routines.

 She passed away on August 9th, 2019.

Diane, always with a smile, met Craig Helm at the Club and they were together for 12 years.
