From Our Dance Director Geoff Burns

Shawn Torgerson — Nightclub Two-Step March 2

Shawn opened the studio Dance For 2, now better known as San Diego's, Dance Headquarters in 2005. At that time it was just the top floor of the American Legion in Linda Vista. The room was small but, was the start of what is now one of the largest dance studios in San Diego at 7,700 square feet and features what he feels is the best of the best in staff, students, flooring, sound, lighting, and location. While able to teach with high proficiency a multitude of styles his specialty is club dances and uses his background in hip hop and breakdancing to create unique and cool pattern combinations that can be used in partner social dancing. He now focuses primarily on running the studio and making sure it continues to be evolving at a top-notch level while teaching a limited amount of private lessons and classes.

Dance Headquarters is his complete vision. A place where all dance styles and people of any gender, race, size, or religion are welcomed. A favorite saying of his is, "Dance is a form of expression and everyone should learn to express themselves."

He has worked very hard in putting together a place that offers everything from social partner dancing to top-level competitive dancing while making sure staff and students are warm and welcoming. Whether you come here to learn, train, or practice he hopes you enjoy the dance.

Margaret Says!

This month Margaret wants everyone to know that there is a line of dance and sticking to the line of dance prevents injuries from people crashing into each other. At our Sunday dance, WCS LOD is parallel to the DJ booth.

Also, if you are walking along the dance floor, or getting on and off, pay attention! There might be dancers coming your way! This isn't a crosswalk! You might get run over.

Trish Connery Walkup & David Walkup Advanced WCS Workshop March 23

David Walkup and Trish Connery Walkup are trained dancers, teachers, choreographers, competitors, and judges specializing in partner dances. They are based in San Diego.

They began dancing in the mid-to-late 1990's — he in San Diego on the United Country Western Dance Council (UCWDC) circuit, she in Los Angeles on the West Coast Swing circuit. They joined forces in 2006 after meeting at a dance convention.

Both are award winning dancers — David holds four UCWDC worlds Championships and a US Open Swing Dance Championship. Trish holds five UCWDC Worlds Championships, is a California Swing Dance Hall of Fame Rising Star, and many top placements in various WCS competitions

Together they have over 30 years of experience in the dance community, teaching a variety of dance styles including Country 2-Step, West Coast Swing, Hustle, Nightclub 2-Step, Cha Cha, Waltz, and more.

Known for their fun and entertaining teaching style, they teach, coach, and choreograph for group classes, private lessons, wedding dance couples, and performance dance teams, as well as provide specialty classes and entertainment for private and corporate events.

Getting to Know Each Other Better Interviews with Meredith Anderson

This month I had the pleasure of interviewing Jerry Morrison.

I grew up in Beaverton, Oregon as one of 4 children.

I graduated from Beaverton High School in 1970. I joined the Air Force shortly after that.

After the service I worked for Reser's Fine Foods as their Distribution Manager, 4 years later I moved to Anchorage, Alaska to work for my younger brother. I lived there for 30 years. Alaska is where I became hooked on DANCING and teaching dance.

My next adventure took me to Central Florida, where I taught dance for 10 years, at the Melbourne Ballroom and the Melbourne Moose Lodge, plus several other places.

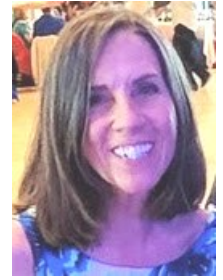

I had an identical twin brother who passed in 2022.

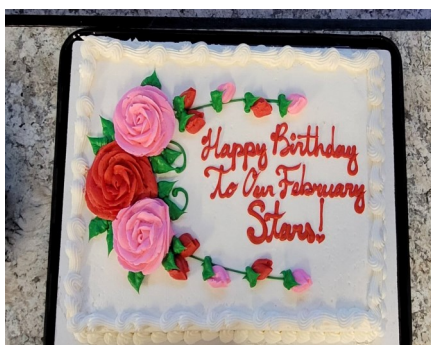

Jerry Morrison shares his feelings and the loss of half of him as his twin brother is with the Lord.

7 months ago I moved here to Spring Valley and joined the SDSC and found my new home.

I am now teaching and hosting a dance on the 2nd and 4th Thursday night at the Kearny Mesa Moose Lodge. My passion for dancing and teaching has been the highlight of my life and I will share it with as many people of as possible. Dance on.

So if you see Jerry at the club go over and say hello or ask for a dance. You can also ask him about his twice a month dances at Kearny Mesa Moose Lodge.
